9^ November THE QUEEN'S RETURN TO \\ HITEHALL
xxx 762 The torchlight entry to Whitehall in anticipation of the festivities on Accession Day had come to be an annual ceremony. In present anxieties it was especially desirable that such popular demonstrations of loyalty should be encouraged

i7,th November ALLEYN'S NEW PLAYHOUSE Hens Papers^ p 4 Hens Diary, i 124, 11 215 The Fortune was built by the same builders as the Globe, and in the contract it is stipulated that the stage and * all other Contrivitions Conveyances fashions thmge and thinges* shall be after the same fashion, except that * carved proporcons, called Satiers shall be set on the principal and main posts of the frame It is sometimes forgotten that even in the public playhouses though the stage was large the auditorium "was small, thus allowing an intimacy between actor and spectator which is lost in modern production
